NEW ORLEANS, LA., September 23.—COTTON—Spot sales 1,470 bales and 100 toarrive. Futures opened steady, unchanged to 3 points higher. News from other markets was still meagre, and only a few reports fuen the country came in, but they were unfavorable enough to keep prices about 10 points up during the morning session. Better news service was established in the afternoon, and prices took on a stiff advance on reports from Mississippi and Louisiana, which indicated more serious harm than was at first thought. The consensus of opinion was that the crop had been cut into 600,000 bales by the storm, and on this conviction prices were ser! up to 10,000 to 10,000 bales by the storm, and on this conviction prices were ser! up to 10,000 to 10,000 bales by the storm, and on this conviction prices were ser! up to 10,000 bales by the storm, and on this conviction prices were ser! up to 10,000 bales by the storm, and on this conviction prices were ser to the conviction of the conviction of the conviction of the serious by the storm and the conviction of the FARMERS MEET AT BOYDTON.

Flery Speech Against Tobacce "Trust" and Warchousemen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYDTON, VA., September 23.—The Skipwith Farmers' Union, No. 52, held a large meeting yesterday in a beautiful grove near Skipwith. Several hundred farmers, with their families and invited guests, attended. A sumptuous dinner was served, the tables being bountifully supplied. One hundred galons of Brunswick stew had been prepared, with fried chicken, roast beef, cakes, peddings, etc. It was a spread it to set before a king. Chalmers Gordon, president of the union, delivered the first address, Next was Samuel Adams, of Charlotte, Mr. Adams has been the champion of the cause of the farmers for several years, and made a flery speech, in which he poured volley after volley into the iobacco trust and warehousemen. He said the warehousemen had to go out of commission; that they were unnecessary to the transaction of the tobacco business, and that their profits for selling tobacco came out of the pockets of the producer. He advocated pooling the entire tobacco crop and then dealing directly with the trust, through a general agent, at fixed prices, established by the producers. He urged a closer union and co-operation of the Profit News at 5:25 and 8:45 P. M.—Adv.

LONDON, September 23.—Money was quiet on the stock market to-day, and calls for $10,090,000 was easily cared for. Discounts were firm.

The Stock Exchange transacted a fair amount of business in diamond shares and Kaffirs, chiefly for Paris account, and rubber shares for local necount, at improving prices. But foreigners and home rails were neglected, and gill-tedged securities weakened on fears of an early rise in the discount rate of the Bank of England, owing to the continued outflow of gold and the large increase of American finance
